To Chairman Tom Wheeler and the FCC Commissioners——

As a concerned citizen, I am writing to urge the Federal Communications Commission to protect Net neutrality and drop the proposed "pay-to-play" rule which would allow corporations and ISPs to implement paid prioritization.

The internet is essential to American business, innovation, and democracy. As such, Net neutrality principles must be protected. Please protect the open internet, scrap paid prioritization, and reclassify the internet as a telecommunications service to ensure Net neutrality.

Sincerely,
